

1/11/41.

Armistice Day November 11th. 1941.

Obituary.

Pte. Norman Lester A.I.F.

On the day that we honour the memories of those that fell in other years, so we honour the memory of our gallant comrade Pte Norman Lester, who, after a brief illness, passed away at 0600 hrs Sunday 9 Nov. 1941. Aged 34 years.

Private Lester came into the unit as an assistant dispenser having been in the employ of Elliott's Wholesale Druggists of Sydney.

Quiet & unassuming he made light of the many difficulties that were continually in evidence and in this manner did much towards maintaining the "Esprit de Corps" so necessary to the patients & units' welfare.

Though unable to communicate with his widow who resides at Rose Bay, Sydney, we record our deepest sympathies, trusting that the terrific blow may be softened by the ultimate knowledge that he was cared for and attended by ~~the~~ comrade & medical officers of his own unit.

over

Now the Labours task is ~~done~~^{o'er}
Now the Battle Day is passed:
Now upon the further shore
Lands the Voyager at last.
Earth to earth Dust to dust
Calmly now the words we say
Leaving him to sleep in trust
'Till the resurrection day.
Father in thy gracious keeping
Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

11th, Nov 1941

Armistice Day. November 11th 1941

OBITUARY

Pte. Norman Lester A.I.F.

On the day that we honour the memories of those that fell in other years, so we honour the memory of our gallant comrade Pte Norman Lester, who after a brief illness passed away at 0600 Hrs Sunday 9th November 1941. Aged 34 Yrs.

Private Lester came into the Unit as an assistant Dispenser, having been in the employment of Elliotts Wholesale Druggists of Sydney. Quiet and unassuming he made light of the many difficulties that were continually in evidence and in this manner did much toward maintaining the "Esprit de corps" which was so necessary to the patients and Units welfare.

Though unable to communicate with his widow who resides at Rose Bay , Sydney, we record our deepest sympathies, trusting that the terrific blow may be softened by the ultimate knowledge that he was cared for and attended by comrades and medical officers of his own unit.

Now the Labours task is o'er
Now the battle day is passed
Now upon the further shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Earth to Earth, dust to dust
Calmly now the words we say
Leaving him to sleep in trust
'Til the resurrection day
Father in thy gracious keeping.
Leave we now the servant sleeping